

70th Annual Notre Dame Club of Kalamazoo Scholarship Golf Outing – Distinguished Speakers

Dave Peloquin - Assistant Athletic Director, Football Strategic Initiatives

Dave is in his 19th season working in the Notre Dame football program. His new, primary responsibilities relate to Name, Image, Likeness, and Ideas with a focus on the athletic department's highest profile student-athletes.

Dave was the director of football development. Peloquin worked with the program's recruiting efforts and handled special projects assigned by head coach Brian Kelly. He played a critical role in helping the Irish secure four top-10 recruiting classes in a six-year period.

Prior to being promoted to director of football development, Peloquin served as coordinator of player personnel development for two seasons. In 2004, Peloquin served in a similar capacity as a recruiting assistant, a role in which he worked with the coaching staff assisting in all recruiting aspects.

A 2003 Notre Dame graduate with a bachelor's degree in business marketing from the Mendoza College of Business, Peloquin served as a student manager from 2000 to 2002 and was named head senior manager for the 2002 season.

Peloquin is a native of Blue Island, Illinois, and is married to the former Jamie Meisenhelder. The couple has two daughters, Mackenzie and Kylie, and one son, DJ.

Kayla Miller - NILI Athlete Marketing Manager Notre Dame Altius Sports Partners

As NILI Athlete Marketing Manager, Kayla will deliver innovative and engaging Name, Image, Likeness, and Ideas education to student-athletes to enhance their NILI market value. Educate local, regional, and national businesses who are not currently university partners on opportunities to partner with Notre Dame student-athletes for NILI and professional development and connect employers and student-athletes to support NILI opportunities.

Kayla joins Altius from On Location Experiences where she led the virtual experiences division and collaborated with the business-to-business team on creating once-in-a-lifetime experiences for exclusive guests. Prior to that, Kayla worked at Anthony Travel, the leading collegiate travel partner, helping to curate, develop, and execute foreign tours.

A former Division I women's basketball student-athlete and captain at the University of Delaware Sweet 16 team, Kayla also had stints at her alma mater in both university development and as director of women's basketball operations. Kayla has a passion for making a difference in people's lives, especially the lives of student-athletes.
